NABUCCO

PRECIOUS FIBERS 1
“Nabucco” is the popular name of Nabucodonosor, one of the greatest operas by the Italian composer Giuseppe Verdi, a milestone of classical music first performed in Milan at La Scala theatre in 1842. To celebrate the deep link of this opera with the history of the city, the wallcovering reproducing Giorgio Armani’s favourite pattern - the streaked texture of onyx slabs - was named after it. Nabucco is also the wallcovering that Mr. Armani chose for the decoration of his boutiques around the world.

MACBETH

PRECIOUS FIBERS 1

Macbeth is probably one of the most famous plays by William Shakespeare. The compelling history of ambition and betrayal reaches its peak with the well-known episode of the Birnam wood, which seems to "walk" towards Macbeth's castle decreeing the destiny of the king. The trompe-l'oeil wallcovering recalls this event, depicting a forest of deciduous trees with tapestry taste. MADE IN ITALY.

OBERON

PRECIOUS FIBERS 1
Oberon owes its name to the Elven king from A Midsummer’s Night Dream by William Shakespeare. The contrast between appearance and reality is a pivotal element of the plot, and it is the key feature of this wallcovering: a classic Art Déco motif, normally depicted using geometric fan-shaped modules, is actually created by the repetition of a shell silhouette.

MONTMARTRE

BELGRAVIA

REFINED STRUCTURES 2
The borough of Belgravia, in London, is famous for the white palaces in Neoclassical style that express a mood of rigorous elegance. The seeming simplicity of the architecture, which appears at first glance, is actually a dynamic series of marbles and stuccos, statues and decorative motifs. This new wallcovering follows this concept of “unexpected detail”: the background, based on a play of large tiles of streaked marble, is crossed horizontally at the top and at the bottom by a contrasting frame with chevron motif. Once more, the wallcovering becomes the occasion to transform key elements of the Armani style like stones and the textile design. The range is coordinated with a printed version with marble tiles only.

STROMBOLI

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS 2

The island of Stromboli is entirely occupied by the volcano with the same name, one of the few still active in the Mediterranean Sea. The frequent eruptions offer an extraordinary spectacle, with streams of fire meeting the deep blue of the ocean after leaving incandescent brushstrokes on the rocky slopes: this exceptional natural phenomenon is recalled by the design of the wallcovering, where tones of red and emerald green create unexpected contrasts. Available also in tone-on-tone combinations.

LIPARI

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS 2

Lipari is the largest of the Aeolian islands, seven gems sprinkled in the blue of the Mediterranean Sea and located not far from the shores of Sicily. The name of the island echoes its beauty and the richness, coming from the ancient Greek Lipàra, which means “fruitful”. For its prominent position in the archipelago, the wallcovering featuring one of the most iconic designs of the Armani style, the shagreen texture, has been named after this island.

One of Giorgio Armani’s favorite islands, Pantelleria was known in the past as “Daughter of the Winds” because of the strong breeze always blowing. The wild landscapes of the island are studded with typical constructions called panteschi gardens, cylinders made with stone blocks to protect the citrus trees. These two sides of Pantelleria are reflected in the wallcovering of the same name, where an irregular design recalls the stone effect on a background imitating the waves the wind creates on the surface of the sea.

MURANO

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS 2

The skill of artisans has become famous worldwide, thanks to masterpieces like the marvelous chandeliers that once decorated noble palaces in the whole Europe. The atmosphere of ball halls and galleries lit by their sparkling lights is reproduced by this wallcovering, which shows a vintage effect inspired by the walls of those rooms.

PONZA

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS 2
Ponza is famous for its jagged shores, rich in rocks and cliffs overlooking the sea. Located not too far from Rome, it was chosen as the location for some patricians' villas, defined by a geometric and austere look reflecting the harsh nature of the island. The strong presence of squared lines is replicated also on the wallcovering, showing a deconstructed checkered design in many color variations. MADE IN ITALY.
